Next Regular Meeting: February 19 – 4:30 p.m., Main Plant Cafeteria

Please start bringing the following to each meeting: scissors, glue, needles - A basic sewing kit.
February project - St. Patrick's motif. Please bring script or small paint brushes, if possible.
March project – Scissor holder/Potluck. Please bring your favorite dish to share.

FROM THE PRESIDENT: We just had a very successful meeting to plan the crafts for this year. There are some real neat projects ahead. In most cases everything will be furnished but do bring your little sewing kits
Our February craft will have a St. Patrick's motif.
Our service project will be bringing things for Tanager Place. Their needs will be noted elsewhere in the newsletter.
Our own Lynn Mitchell will be an instructor at the free CPR sessions being offered at Xavier High School on February 22. For more details as to time etc. call 378-1763. Also registration is necessary.
Our annual pot luck in March will not have any theme. Just bring your favorite dish to share. Table service will be furnished.
Happy Valentines Day to all. See you on February 19th at 4:30

Jean Strait
President 2002-2003

COMMUNITY SERVICE PROJECT: The January project was the Salvation Army. We collected $52 at the meeting. It was spent for canned meats, stews and Personal items plus a box of items Jean had of motel soaps and supplies. Thanks so much.

Our project for February will be the Tanager place. The supplies they need are: Arts & Crafts, Health care, school, personal care, clothes (all sizes), recreational and household items. Examples: Glue, beads, construction paper, paints, markers, paper, cross stitch kits, thermometers, floor scales, humidifiers, calculators, folders, pens, pencils, notebooks, shampoo, soap, makeup, deodorant, lotion, books, board games, puzzles, coloring books, towels, wash clothes, toaster, blankets, plants, etc.

Thank you!
Gloria Waltke and Zona Davison
